Jesús Castro-Balbi: Reviews

“Jesús Castro-Balbi turned in a performance worthy of any concert stage in the world. He commanded a huge range of volume, timbre and emotions, by turn whispering, proclaiming or reminiscing.”

The Star-Telegram (Texas)

“By far the best part of a good evening was an international-class performance of Dvorák's Cello Concerto. An exceptional cellist, Jesus Castro-Balbi [...] created magic with an approach that was bold when it had to be but often mellow and always subtle.”

The Dallas Morning News (Texas)

“Castro-Balbi's [tone] was rich and warm, with lots of variety of inflection and nuance.”

New York Concert Review (New York)
